From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Tue, 11/19/2013 9:30:41 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Struggle for Englandâ€™s graduates revealed, Sony turn...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Tuesday November 19 2013

UK HOMEPAGE

Struggle for England's graduates revealed

The FT's analysis of student loan data exposes the damage done to a generation of graduates, for whom a degree has all but ceased to be a ticket to a decent job

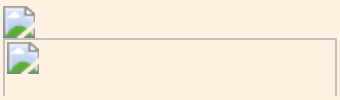
Sony turns to Bain to find cost cuts

JPMorgan agrees to shoulder WaMu bill

VIDEO

Join the oil services queue

Petrofac's shares tumbled after it cautioned that 2014 net income would be below investor expectations. Lex's Oliver Ralph and Vincent Boland discuss the latest developments at the company and in the oil services sector.



US HOMEPAGE

S Korea's soulless alternative to Seoul

Seijong City was once touted as a potential new capital – a new base for multiple government departments – but a lack of private investment and meagre transport links risk turning the city into a characterless shell

Bitcoin leaps ahead of Senate boost

UK foreign exchange probe turns personal

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Spy claims hurt trade talks, says Merkel

Chancellor urges Washington to provide ‘a clarification’ of its alleged mass surveillance as ‘a basis for building new transatlantic trust’

China reform pledge feeds risk appetite

RBI chief plans ‘dramatic’ overhaul

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Citigroup cuts South Korea branches

The lender has quietly cut the number of its South Korean branches to 196 as revenues from the region suffer

China’s leaders seek dividend payment

London banks quit carbon trading

WORLD NEWS

Paris police launch manhunt for gunman

Attacker shot and wounded a photographer’s assistant at Libération, and opened fire on Société Générale before escaping in a hijacked car

White House works to bypass health site

Italy warns Germany of anti-European mood

Details of Nairobi mall terror plot emerge

Restless Chile awaits returning Bachelet

COMPANIES NEWS

Boeing and Airbus bullish on global demand

But both companies underlined their close relationship with the UAE by agreeing to buy more kit from an Abu Dhabi-based aerospace component maker

Scottish Widows first, now the big boys

RBS talks to BNP Paribas over portfolio

Mini and Rolls-Royce eye SUV options

Kerimov sells Uralkali stake to Prokhorov

MARKETS

US stocks set new intraday highs

Equity benchmarks have charged higher as investors expect the Fed to continue supporting asset prices through its stimulus measures for the time being

Saudi crude exports approach 8-year high

Goldman to step up warehouse sale talks

Cobalt pricing move sets post-Libor trend

Riskier loan slices hit record levels

COMMENT

China and Japan are heading for a clash

It is hard to believe that either Beijing or Tokyo actually wants a war. The bigger risk is that military posturing will lead to an accidental clash

British meet crisis with understatement

Exploiting xenophobia is risky for Putin

Capping pension fees will raise costs

Investment is Germany's big problem

MANAGEMENT

US taps crowds for seed capital

Politicians eager for growth are giving US start-ups more freedom to use the internet to raise funds, but the move is proving controversial

End of the imperial corporate leader

Sainsbury's 'Christmas in a day' film

Commoditised market innovation

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2013

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.